Note. The greater part of the publications from Lot 1, was limited to 100 copies, and many of them published solely for private distribution. The Poems of Sir Walter Raleigh; The Occasional Poems of Wm. Browne which had hitherto remained in manuscript; The Rhapsody collected by Francis Davison; The Autographical Memoir of Margaret Duchess of Newcastle; The Pieces of Nicholas Breton, hitherto unattainable, are all reprints of rare tracts:—The exquisitely engraved Wood Cuts, the beauty of the Typography, and the paper on which the majority of these works is printed, cannot fail to excite the admiration of all collectors of valuable and curious books.
